

M'CORMICK HEIRESS WINS CONSENT TO WED RIDING MASTER

ried the head waitress of a famous hotel he owned.

The consent to the marriage to-day was viewed as in keeping with the policy of the family to allow the children free rein in the matter of marriage. The two daughters, Muriel and Mathilde, were trained in self-expression by Mrs. McCormick, who studied psycho-analysis in the seven years she was abroad.

One cardinal principle of the students of the science is that a "suppressed desire" may work untold harm on a person. Friends say that McCormick agrees with his wife's belief and this may have had much to do with consent to the marriage.

"I am terribly lonesome and will return as soon as possible," was Mathilde's only comment to-day.

ZURICH, Switzerland, Feb. 20.—Max Oser continued to care for his horses to-day as he gave out brief confirmation of his reported engagement to Mathilde McCormick, sixteen-year-old granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller.

"We will be married this summer," Mr. McCormick comments, said Oser, who had not heard that the engagement had been formally announced in Chicago. "I came to know Mathilde while giving her riding lessons."

The horseman, whose livery stable is near his riding academy, refused to comment on the difference in ages between himself and Miss McCormick. He is of prepossessing appearance and looks about fifty years old.

His brother Jean informed newspaper men that Max was formerly an artist and still paints occasionally.

MISS M'CORMICK MET OSER WHILE SEEKING HEALTH

Spends Most of Her Time Tramping Swiss Mountains With Riding Master.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20 (Associated Press).—Miss McCormick went to Switzerland eight years ago for medical treatment and has made her home there ever since, spending a great part of her time out-of-doors, tramping over the mountains and riding her favorite horses, often in company with Mr. Oser, whose riding academy she attended.

All trace of the early infection which necessitated her living in Switzerland has disappeared and she is now a tall, straight limbed, black haired girl, with large black eyes and pleasant, though not regular features.

Miss Mathilde is as unlike the typical American society girl as she is unlike the typical Continental society girl. Speaking with a half-German, half-French accent, she entertained the reporters with her experiences in acquiring American slang. "I can say 'open up your mouth and let the moonshine in,'" she boasted, and in response to the general laugh which followed, added, "I guess that's the dope."

Secrets of the courtship of Oser and Miss McCormick are to be closely guarded if the McCormick millions can protect them. The management of the Hotel Bauer, where the Swiss riding master wooed and won the affections of the Rockefeller heiress, to-day threatened with dismissal any employee who talked of the McCormick affairs and doings while they were staying here. Many of the employees remember Mathilde only as an eleven-year-old child.

FORMER WIFE OF ABE ATTOL HELD IN BOND ROBBERY.

Mrs. Ethel Bruce Attol, former wife of Abe Attol, prize fighter, and Harry Cohen and Samuel Gold pleaded not guilty to-day before Judge Webb in the United States District Court to indictments charging them with handling Liberty bonds stolen from the mails when in transmission from the Federal Reserve Bank here to the Treasury Department in Washington, July 18, 1921. They were held in $5,000 bail each.

BOMB WRECKS 3 HOMES; IMPERILS FIFTEEN CHILDREN

beds overturned, and large pieces of glass thrown into the bed. Several of the children were slightly cut.

The two-story brick house on the left was occupied by Longato with his wife and six children, who had both lower and upper floor apartments. The brick wall next to the middle house was bent in by the explosion and every door in the house was blown off its hinges. The occupants all got out safely. The middle house was wrecked and fragments blown 200 feet across the street. Telegraph and telephone wires were blown down.

Police of Highland Park said they were confident the explosion was caused by a bomb, although no fragments of a bomb could be found. No traces of a still could be found. The middle house was purchased six weeks ago by Joseph Liciumi of New Brunswick.

BURGLAR'S DIPLOMA FOUND ON PRISONER

Had Receipt From Correspondence School for Tuition in Safe Cracking.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 20.—Charles Benson, thirty-nine, of Ridgely Park, Philadelphia, possessor of a diploma from a Los Angeles "School of Safe Work," pleaded guilty here to-day to two charges, one of breaking and entering St. Patrick's Church early yesterday morning, and the other with possessing burglar's tools. He was bound over to the Grand Jury in $3,000 bail on each complaint. He is a photo-engraver, he told the court, and came here from New York because he was told that there were "better chances here."

"They call 'em burglar's tools," he said, "but I was using 'em for other things, automotive and odd jobs." The police are sending his photograph and finer prints to several cities.

WOODS WINS A POINT IN DEMI-VIRGIN FIGHT

Appellate Division Denies Right of Commissioner to Revoke License.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to-day unanimously reversed the special term decision denying an injunction to the A. H. Woods Theatre Co., Inc., to restrain John E. Gilchrist, Commissioner of Licenses, from revoking the license of the Eltinge Theatre.

The Appellate Division denies the right of the License Commissioner to revoke theatre licenses and any such power rests in a Judge or Justice of a court of record. It does not go into the question whether or not the "Demi-Virgin" is, as Commissioner Gilchrist claims, "an indecent, immoral and obscene play, and subversive of the public morals and welfare."

NEAR BEER USE DROPS AS RAIL RATES GO UP

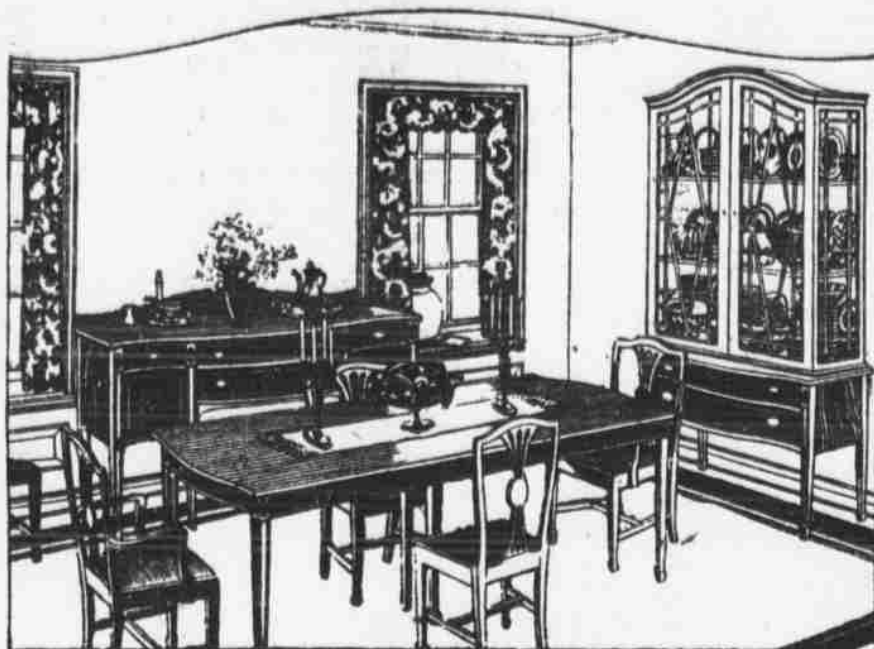

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—High rail-road rates have "enormously decreased" consumption of near beer, according to manufacturers who appeared to-day at the Interstate Commerce Commission's general rate hearing. "People simply refuse to drink beverages when the prices get higher than anybody but plutocrats can pay," said William E. Rosenbaum, representing the Anheuser-Busch Company. "When the retail price is 110 cents per bottle, the consumption is ten bottles; when the price goes to twenty-five cents, the consumption is one."

YOUNG WOMAN DRUG VICTIM.

A young woman who described herself as Cecile Breach collapsed in the West 123d Street Police Station last night after she had been taken there by William Neenan, a taxicab driver. He had become alarmed at her condition when she entered his cab. She was taken to the Harlem Hospital, where it was found she was suffering from a drug. She left a violin in the taxi.
